MICHAEL L. ROSENTHAL of Hartsdale, principal of Rosenthal Memorial Chapel in Pleasantville, co-chaired the executive seminar of the Jewish Funeral Directors of America, which took place in May at the Renaissance Hotel in Providence, R.I. He also chaired the event in 2006. Twenty-five Jewish funeral directors attended the event. Attendees learned about Jewish traditions in funeral practices, the differences between men and women in the funeral industry, how to address generational differences in the funeral business and with client families and workplace safety.
